NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, February 28, 1931

No. 12.—The following notification of the Government of India is republished:—

FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

New Delhi, the 12th February 1931.

No. 21-G.—With reference to Notification No. 30-G, dated the 2nd January 1930, Mr F. E. Hooper, Acting Honorary Consul for Hungary at Madras, resumed charge of his office on the 23rd January 1931.

Fort St. George, March 10, 1931.

No. 13.—The following notification of the Government of India is republished:—

HOME DEPARTMENT.

POLITICAL.

New Delhi, the 6th March 1931.

No. S.-481-Poll.—The following statement by the Governor-General in Council is published for general information:—

(1) Consequent on the conversations that have taken place between His Excellency the Viceroy and Mr. Gandhi it has been arranged that the civil disobedience movement be discontinued and that, with the approval of His Majesty's Government, certain action be taken by the Government of India and Local Governments.

(2) As regards constitutional questions, the scope of future discussion is stated, with the assent of His Majesty's Government, to be with the object of considering further the scheme for the constitutional Government of India discussed at the Round Table Conference. Of the scheme there outlined, 'Federation' is an essential part; so also are Indian responsibility and reservations or safeguards in the interests of India, for such matters as, for instance, defence, external affairs, the position of minorities, the financial credit of India and the discharge of obligations.

(3) In pursuance of the statement made by the Prime Minister in his announcement of the 19th of January 1931, steps will be taken for the participation of the representatives of the Congress in the further discussions that are to take place on the scheme of constitutional reform.

(4) The settlement relates to activities directly connected with the civil disobedience movement.

(5) Civil disobedience will be effectively discontinued and reciprocal action will be taken by Government. The effective discontinuance of the civil disobedience movement means the effective discontinuance of all activities in furtherance thereof, by whatever methods pursued and, in particular, the following:—

(1) the organized defiance of the provisions of any law;

(2) the movement for the non-payment of land revenue and other legal dues;

(3) the publication of news-sheets in support of the civil disobedience movement;

(4) attempts to influence civil and military servants or village officials against Government or to persuade them to resign their posts.

(6) As regards the boycott of foreign goods there are two issues involved, firstly, the character of the boycott and secondly, the methods employed in giving effect to it. The position of Government is as follows. They approve of the encouragement of Indian industries as part of the economic and industrial movement designed to improve the material condition of India, and they have no desire to discourage methods of propaganda, persuasion or advertisement pursued with this object in view, which do not interfere with the freedom of action of individuals, or are not prejudicial to the maintenance of Law and Order. But the boycott of non-Indian goods (except of cloth which has been applied to all foreign cloth) has been directed during the civil disobedience movement chiefly, if not exclusively, against British goods, and in regard to these it has been admittedly employed in order to exert pressure for political ends.

It is accepted that a boycott of this character, and organized for this purpose, will not be consistent with the participation of representatives of the Congress in a frank and friendly discussion on constitutional questions between representatives of British India, of the Indian States, and of His Majesty's Government and political parties in England which the settlement is intended to secure. It is, therefore, agreed that the discontinuance of the civil disobedience movement connotes the definite discontinuance of the employment of the boycott of British commodities as a political weapon and that, in consequence, those who have given up, during a time of political excitement, the sale or purchase of British goods must be left free without any form of restraint to change their attitude if they so desire.

(7) In regard to the methods employed in furtherance of the replacement of non-Indian by Indian goods, or against the consumption of intoxicating liquor and drugs, resort will not be had to methods coming within the category of picketing, except within the limits permitted by the ordinary law. Such picketing shall be unaggressive and it shall not involve coercion, intimidation, restraint, hostile demonstration, obstruction to the public or any offence under the ordinary law. If and when any of these methods is employed in any place, the practice of picketing in that place will be suspended.

(8) Mr Gandhi has drawn the attention of Government to specific allegations against the conduct of the Police and represented the desirability of a public enquiry into them. In present circumstances Government see great difficulty in this course and feel that it must inevitably lead to charges and counter-charges, and so militate against the re-establishment of peace. Having regard to these considerations Mr. Gandhi agreed not to press the matter.

(9) The action that Government will take on the discontinuance of the civil disobedience movement is stated in the following paragraphs.

(10) Ordinances promulgated in connexion with the civil disobedience movement will be withdrawn.

Ordinance No I of 1931 relating to the terrorist movement does not come within the scope of the provision.

(11) Notifications declaring associations unlawful under the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1908 will be withdrawn, provided that the notifications were made in connexion with the civil disobedience movement.

The notifications recently issued by the Burma Government under the Criminal Law Amendment Act do not come within the scope of this provision.

(12) (i) Pending prosecutions will be withdrawn if they have been filed in connexion with the civil disobedience movement and relate to offences which do not involve violence other than technical violence or incitement to such violence

(ii) The same principles will apply to proceedings under the security provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code.

(iii) Where a local Government has moved any High Court or has initiated proceedings under the Legal Practitioners Act in regard to the conduct of legal practitioners in connexion with the civil disobedience movement, it will make application to the Court concerned for permission to withdraw such proceedings, provided that the alleged conduct of the persons concerned does not relate to violence or incitement to violence

(iv) Prosecutions, if any, against soldiers and Police involving disobedience of orders will not come within the scope of this provision.

(13) (i) Those prisoners will be released who are undergoing imprisonment in connexion with the civil disobedience movement for offences which did not involve violence, other than technical violence, or incitement to such violence

(ii) If any prisoner who comes within the scope of (i) above has been also sentenced for a jail offence, not involving violence, other than technical violence, or incitement to such violence, the latter sentence also will be remitted, or if a prosecution relating to an offence of this character is pending against such a prisoner, it will be withdrawn.

(iii) Soldiers and Police convicted of offences involving disobedience of orders—in the very few cases that have occurred—will not come within the scope of the amnesty.

(14) Fines which have not been realized will be remitted. Where an order for the forfeiture of security has been made under the security provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code, and the security has not been realized, it will be similarly remitted. Fines which have been realized and securities forfeited and realized under any law will not be returned.

(15) Additional police imposed in connexion with the civil disobedience movement at the expense of the inhabitants of a particular area will be withdrawn at the discretion of local Governments. Local Governments will not refund any money, not in excess of the actual cost, that has been realized, but they will remit any sum that has not been realized.

(16) (a) Movable property, which is not an illegal possession, and which has been seized in connexion with the civil disobedience movement, under the Ordinances or the provisions of the Criminal law, will be returned, if it is still in the possession of Government.

(b) Movable property, forfeited or attached in connexion with the realization of land revenue or other dues, will be returned, unless the Collector of the district has reason to believe that the defaulter will contumaciously refuse to pay the dues recoverable from him within a reasonable period. In deciding what is a reasonable period, special regard will be paid to cases in which the defaulters, while willing to pay, genuinely require time for the purpose, and if necessary, the revenue will be suspended in accordance with the ordinary principles of land revenue administration.

(c) Compensation will not be given for deterioration.

(d) Where movable property has been sold or otherwise finally disposed of by Government, compensation will not be given and the sale proceeds will not be returned, except in so far as they are in excess of the legal dues for which the property may have been sold

(e) It will be open to any person to seek any legal remedy he may have on the ground that the attachment or seizure of property was not in accordance with the law.

(17) (a) Immovable property of which possession has been taken under Ordinance IX of 1930 will be returned in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance.

(b) Land and other immovable property in the possession of Government which has been forfeited or attached in connexion with the realization of land revenue or other dues will be returned unless the Collector of the District has reason to believe that the defaulter will contumaciously refuse to pay the dues recoverable from him within a reasonable period. In deciding what is a reasonable period, special regard will be paid to cases in which the defaulter, while willing to pay, genuinely requires time for the purpose and if necessary the revenues will be suspended in accordance with the ordinary principles of land revenue administration.

(c) Where immovable property has been sold to third parties the transaction must be regarded as final, so far as Government are concerned.

Note—Mr. Gandhi has represented to Government that according to his information and belief some, at least, of these sales have been unlawful and unjust. Government on the information before them cannot accept this contention.

(d) It will be open to any person to seek any legal remedy he may have on the ground that the seizure or attachment of property was not in accordance with the law.

(18) Government believe that there have been very few cases in which the realization of dues has not been made in accordance with the provisions of the law. In order to meet such cases, if any, local Governments will issue instructions to District Officers to have prompt enquiry made into any specific complaint of this nature, and to give redress without delay if illegality is established.

(19) Where the posts rendered vacant by resignations have been permanently filled, Government will not be able to reinstate the late incumbents. Other cases of resignation will be considered on their merits by local Governments who will pursue a liberal policy in regard to the reappointment of Government servants and village officials who apply for reinstatement.

(20) Government are unable to condone breaches of the existing law relating to the salt administration, nor are they able in the present financial conditions of the country, to make substantial modifications in the Salt Acts.

For the sake however of giving relief to certain of the poorer classes, they are prepared to extend their administrative provisions, on lines already prevailing, in certain places, in order to permit local residents in villages, immediately adjoining areas where salt can be collected or made, to collect or make salt for domestic consumption or sale within such villages, but not for sale to, or trading with, individuals living outside them.

(21) In the event of Congress failing to give full effect to the obligations of this settlement, Government will take such action as may, in consequence, become necessary for the protection of the public and individuals and the due observance of Law and Order."

Chief Secretary.

III. SPECIFICATION FOR WOOD-NAPTHA.

(a) Not more than 30 c.c. of the wood-naptha should be required to decolourise 0·5 grams of bromine ;

(c) it must contain at least 72 per cent by volume of methyl alcohol (Methanol). In order to estimate the amount of methanol the fractional distillation test (Government Laboratory, London) will be taken as standard ;

(d) in 100 c.c. of wood-naptha, there should not be less than 5 grams of substances present (calculated as acetone) as measured by Messenger's test and ;

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, for certain purposes, was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 11th February 1931:—

We, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, for certain purposes, was referred, have considered the Bill, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill annexed thereto

2 We do not propose that any amendment should be made in the Bill, but we wish to place two suggestions on record :—

(1) The proposed new sections 57A and 58A, contained in clauses 4 and 5 of the Bill, use the phrase "lascar or other native seaman". We deprecate the use of the word "native", but realise that the phrase in which it occurs is frequently used throughout the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, and that to use some other phrase in these two sections alone might create difficulty. We recommend, therefore, that opportunity should be taken in the next Repealing and Amending Bill to alter the phrase so as to remove this word from the whole Act.

(2) In regard to section 91, as recast in clause 8 of the Bill, we consider that the inspection of provisions, water, medicines and appliances should be carried out by qualified medical officers, and we recommend that the Health Officer of each port should always be an "officer duly appointed in this behalf by the Governor-General in Council".

3 The Bill was published in the Gazette of India dated the 17th January 1931.

4 As the Bill has not been altered, it does not require republication, and we recommend that it be passed in the form in which it was introduced.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the second Assembly I had given notice of my intention to introduce a Bill designed to protect married and unmarried girls below the age of 15 Subsequently the Government introduced a similar Bill affording protection to girls below the ages of 13 and 14 within and outside marital relations. During the course of the discussion on that Bill the Hon'ble the Home Member gave an undertaking in the Assembly to circulate those clauses of my Bill which were not covered by the Government Bill Those clauses provided for a new offence of marital misbehaviour. Before, however, it could be passed, the Government appointed a special committee to report on the necessity of further legislation That committee has published its report supporting in principle the provisions of my original Bill. This Bill is my old Bill, recast in the light of its recommendations and I trust that it may now be passed into law without further delay.

H. S. GOUR.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February 1931 :—

L A. BILL No. 26 OF 1931.

A Bill to repeal the Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908; it is hereby enacted as follows :— XIV of 1908.

Short title extent and commencement.

1 (1) This Act may be called the Indian Criminal Law Amendment (Repeal) Act, 19 .

(2) It shall extend to all provinces and territories in British India in which the said Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908, is in force by notification by the Government of India and by the Local Governments and Administrations under the Devolution Act, 1920, or otherwise XIV of 1908. XXXVIII of 1920.

(3) It shall come into force immediately.

Repeal of Act XIV of 1908.

2 (1) The Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby repealed XIV of 1908.

(2) All proceedings and prosecutions pending on the date of the coming into force of this Act shall be deemed to be withdrawn

(3) All sentences of imprisonment or fine or both that may remain to be undergone or paid by those convicted under the Act shall cease with the coming into operation of this Act

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Part I of the Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1908 was repealed in 1922, but Part II was left over for later action. Both Parts I and II were enacted with a view to enable the Government to deal with avowed crimes of violence by anarchical and revolutionary organisations. The manner in which Part II has been used since May last in regard to avowedly non violent organisations and non violent activities and in particular to suppress the organisations of the Indian National Congress and the peaceful and legitimate activities of Congress workers, has resulted in an abuse of the law of so serious a character and has inflicted an amount of injury and injustice, so wide and general, that the highest courts in India have had to point out and condemn them. It is, therefore, urgent and necessary that this Act should be repealed forthwith.

GAYA PRASAD SINGH.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February 1931 :—

L.A. BILL No. 28 OF 1931

A Bill further to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Bar XXXVIII of 1926. Councils Act, 1926 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Bar Councils (Amendment) Act, 19 .

XXXVIII of 1926. (2) It shall extend to the whole of British India, where the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, is in force

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Amendment of section 4, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

XXXVIII of 1926. 2. In section 4 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) sub-section (2) shall be omitted ; and

(b) the proviso to sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 9, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

3. In section 9 of the said Act,—

(a) to sub-section (3) the following words shall be added at the end, namely :—

"and shall also provide for uniformity of rights, privileges and robes of advocates" ; and

(b) sub section (4) shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 14, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

4. In section 14 of the said Act,—

(a) in clause (a) of sub-section (1), the words and figures "subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 9" shall be omitted ; and

(b) sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The main object of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, was the creation of a united Indian Bar. There are certain provisions in the Act, which stand in the way of creation of a united bar by allowing distinction about rights and privileges among advocates. It is desirable that the Act should be so amended, which will do away with all distinctions among advocates, to facilitate the creation of a united Indian bar.

"PURNACHAL" BUILDING,
The 15th December 1930 AMAR NATH DUTT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February 1931 :—

L.A. BILL No. 29 OF 1931.

A Bill to secure a share for Hindu widows in their husbands' family property.

WHEREAS it is expedient to secure a share for Hindu widows in their husbands' family property ; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Widows' Right of Inheritance Act, 19 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Santhal Parganas.

(3) It shall come into force on the day of 19 .

Definition.

2 In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "Widow" includes the widow of a person who at the time of his death professed the Hindu, Jaina or Sikh religion.

Widow's right to share in joint family and other property of her husband.

3 (1) Where the husband of a widow was at the time of his death a member of a joint family, the widow shall be entitled to such share of the joint family property as her husband would have been entitled to, under the Mitakshara law had a partition taken place in his lifetime, and may sue for partition.

(2) Where the husband of a widow was not at the time of his death a member of a joint Hindu family, the widow shall take all his property absolutely :

Provided that, should a widow adopt a son to her deceased husband, the personal law of adoption applicable to the widow shall take effect but to the extent of a moiety only of the family property.

Widow's share to be exclusive of stridhan.

4. A widow's share under this Act shall be exclusive of her independent personal property or her stridhan.

Widow's claim to maintenance to cease on separation of her share.

5. A widow's claim to maintenance from the funds of a joint family shall cease on the partition and separation of her share as provided in this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Hindu Law of Inheritance, so far as women are concerned, is unsatisfactory and unjust, and the position of Hindu widows under it is deplorable.

A Hindu woman does not get any share in her father's property —share in the corpus of property of which she becomes absolute owner—nor does she get any in her husband's. Widow's right of inheritance is very scantily and sparingly recognized by different schools of Hindu Law. Katyayana says "Let the widow succeed to her husband's wealth"—Mitakshara II, 2 s. 2 (Mayne's Hindu Law, p. 757). Mayne says : "Originally she (the widow) shared in the general incapacity for inheritance which affected all women . . .

neither Mann, Apastamba, Vashishtha nor Narada recognize her right as heir though they do acknowledge that of the daughter and the mother," p. 759.

After tracing the growth of widows' rights, Mayne says that Mitakshara arrived at the conclusion that "the widow is entitled to inherit to her husband, if he died separated and not re-united and leaving no male issue, and this rule is now adopted universally except where the authority of Jimuta Vahana prevails"; p. 762. He adds: "It is therefore equally settled in Bengal that a widow succeeds to her husband's share when he is undivided just as she would to the entire property of one who held as separated." But even in Bengal the widow of a son who predeceases his father undivided inherits nothing.

Thus as a rule "a widow's right as heir does not go beyond the reason for it, viz., her claim to a personal maintenance. And this is the reason why, where a woman inherits to a male, his heirs and not hers take at her death." A widow's right is practically a right to maintenance and no more.

In practice a widow in Hindu society is at the mercy of co-parceners. Even though her husband may have amassed the entire wealth of the family and she may, during his lifetime, have lived a life of affluence and luxury, as soon as he dies, the entire property goes to the surviving male members of the family and she becomes thenceforth only entitled to maintenance, which, as popularly understood, denotes bare means of living.

This state of affairs may have operated tolerably well in days when India was practically isolated from the rest of the world, and the principles and ideals underlying the joint Hindu family system were properly understood and fully acted upon by members of the family. But with the disappearance of those ideals which the originators of the joint family system had in view, the non-observances of the principles on which this system was originally based, the gradual and slowly continuing disintegration of the joint family system, the progressive loosening of caste bonds, resulting in gradual disappearance of the homogeneity and the harmony of Hindu society and various other causes—all due more or less to the acceptance of new ideas of life and conduct and the influence of foreign culture and contact—the Hindu Law of inheritance has begun to operate against women with a disastrous effect and their lives are becoming difficult and distressful and often miserable; while the condition of widows has become intolerable and in many cases appalling.

The present Bill proposes to give relief to Hindu widows by giving them a share in family property and making them sole owners of their deceased husbands' personal property.

HARBILAS SARDA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February 1931:—

L.A. BILL No. 30 OF 1931.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

V of 1898

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Chapter XXXVII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to directions in the nature of a Habeas Corpus; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 19 .

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India.

Amendment of section 491, Act V of 1898.

2. For sub-section (3) of section 491 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the following sub-section shall be substituted, V of 1898. namely :—

"(3) When a British Indian subject is detained by any authority otherwise than under a judicial order of any Court in British India, he shall be produced by such authority on an application made by the person so detained or on his behalf to the High Court or Sessions Court within whose jurisdiction the person was arrested, ordinarily resides or is detained, and, if such Court thinks that there is no just ground for his detention under the law under which he is said to be detained, he shall be forthwith set at liberty :

Provided that the operation of the provisions of this sub-section may be suspended in British India or in any part of it by the Governor General in Council by a notification in the Gazette of India in cases of grave emergency; such suspension shall cease to have any force if the assent of both Chambers of the Indian Legislature is not obtained within two months of the date of notification."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There is no law like the Habeas Corpus Act for securing the liberty of person of His Majesty's British Indian subjects against unlawful or unjustifiable detentions except the meagre provision contained in section 491 of Act V of 1898. In England, in any matter involving the liberty of the subject, the action of the Crown, of its ministers or high officials of the Privy Council or the Executive Government is subject to the supervision and control of the Judges on Habeas Corpus. It is a remedy available to the meanest subject against the most powerful, and the writ is applicable as a remedy in all cases of wrongful deprivation of personal liberty. It is but just and proper that there should be some analogous provision for the protection of the liberty of persons of His Majesty's British Indian subjects in India.

The necessity for amending the law has been occasioned by the arbitrary exercise of its powers of detention under various laws by Executive authorities in recent times. The amendment provides for a judicial pronouncement on the justifiability or otherwise of Executive acts. It is said that papers of all cases of such detention are placed before two Sessions Judges, and the proposed amendment only seeks to give a statutory sanction to the practice said to be in vogue. Provision has also been made in the proposed Bill for suspension of the whole or a portion of the section in cases of grave emergency by the Governor General in Council in or any part of British India, and excludes all cases where there has been any judicial order for detention.
